per our previous arrangements.

25X1 6. [] Met with Mr. J.R. Blandford, Chief Counsel, House Armed Services Committee. Mr. Blandford advised that the Agency is still scheduled to lead off in the posture briefing in February but that dates have not yet been established. Since the Chairman had not been back but a short time, the question of a meeting with the CIA Subcommittee for next week has not yet been discussed.
The schedule for the week, however, is very full and if scheduled by the Chairman, would be an 8:00 a.m. meeting. Mr. Blandford will be in further contact with the Chairman during the weekend and will come back to us as soon as possible.

25X1 7. [] Met with Representative Glenard P.
Lipscomb (R., Calif.) and provided him with background information for possible further use on the floor of the Congress. Mr. Lipscomb indicated that he would be out of the city from Sunday through Tuesday but would enjoy meeting with us on his return on the question of a Congressional Joint Committee for Intelligence. Mr. Lipscomb is concerned about current newspaper reports relating to the Agency and its activities and desires more detailed information, particularly on the subject of a Joint Committee.

25X1 8. [] Met with Mr. Sam Archibald, Foreign Operations and Government Information Subcommittee staff, concerning today's request from BOB for Agency comments on the Gallagher Polygraph Bill, H.R. 9878. Mr. Archibald indicated that this is a routine follow up by the Committee to all agencies who had appeared as witnesses before the Committee on polygraph. He advised further that the Committee file was documented at the time of the original request to show that CIA had responded informally in the negative in keeping with our extensive classified testimony before the Committee and that no further response was desired by the Committee.

Mr. Archibald advised that he will be leaving during the week to take advantage of a fellowship at Columbia University and that Jack Matteson, Chief Investigator, will be handling such hearings as might be held on H. R. 9878 and the windup of the polygraph report.
